DECLARATION OF ANTHONY S. PETRU

I, Anthony S. Petru, declare:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice before all the courts in the State of California and the United States District Courts in the State of California. I am a partner of the law firm of Hildebrand, McLeod & Nelson, Inc., attorneys of record for GLORIA MUNOZ, the plaintiff in Munoz v. Grace, et al., a California case filed in Alameda County Superior Court, Case No. 810748-2.

2. I have been charged with the litigation of the aforesaid Munoz v. Grace, et al., matter and am fully familiar with the facts herein stated.

3. The above-entitled case is pending in Alameda County Superior Court. The Superior Court imposed a stay pending the resolution of defendant W.R. Grace's bankruptcy case.

4. The undersigned represented Blanca Flotte in EEOC and Blanca Flotte, intervenor, v. W.R. Grace & Company, United States District Court, Northern District of California, Case No. C 98 1256 WHO. Ms. Flotte alleged that she was discriminated on the basis of sex at the W.R. Grace plant in San Leandro, California, where Gloria Munoz worked. During litigation of the Flotte matter, I obtained information concerning W.R. Grace's hiring practices at the San Leandro plant: namely, that in 1996 a female hiring hall referral was dispatched to W. R. GRACE and was denied employment. Again, in 1997, two female referrals were dispatched to the San Leandro plant with a male; only the male was hired. The discrimination claim was settled by Ms. Flotte, another female intervenor, and the EEOC in 1999.

5. The undersigned respectfully requests permission from the Court to appear by telephone at the September 29, 2008, hearing as it would be a hardship for him and his client, in light of his calendar, to make a personal appearance on September 29, 2008, in Delaware from California.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

Executed this 17th day of September 2008, at Oakland, California.
